

Spotify Social Media Something Something

Description:

A social media site where a user makes an account and their “content” is their top 5 songs of the last 6 months. Every user gets their songs added to a leaderboard. Every user can either upvote or downvote every other user's top 5 songs.

Tech Stack:

Frontend: React.js

Backend: Node.js / Express.js / Spotify API

Database: Jquery -> MySql

Hosting: Node.js on EC2

Rubric:

Rubric turned in on time (5 points)

- Remember to get it checked out by a TA!

Languages/Frameworks used (20 points)

- 10 - React.js
- 10 - Express.js
- 0 - MySQL

Functionality (60 points)

- 10 Users can register, login, and logout
- 5 Implementing animations on buttons using framer motion
- 15 Logged in users can add their top 5 songs to the site using spotify search
- 5 Logged in users can view other users profiles
- 5 Logged in users can vote on other users songs
- 10 Database contains Users, some kind of ID for their top songs

Best Practices (5 points)

- 3 Code is readable and well formatted
- 2 All pages pass the html validator

Creative Portion (5 points)